From Mrs. Bailey...

- It's almost Thanksgiving! I am so thankful to have your children each day!
- Being away from the classroom is difficult, and I have a lot to catch up on. It may take a bit to get caught up on grades.
- This week we will finish up Native American projects. We will also start Force and Motion.
- Literacy Parade is Friday! Be sure you have made a plan for your character costume. If you are having trouble, see me!
